The path among the treetops Rogla Pohorje

Slovenia

A case of a treetop walk

https://treetop-walks.com/pohorje/en

Experience nature from a bird's eye view

The 1,043-metre-long trail winds up to 20 metres high among the spruce trees, thrills us with adrenaline and educational stations in between, and then takes us to the 37-meter-high tower at the end, which offers an unforgettable view through the forests of Pohorje and down into the valley, sometimes even as far as the Slovenian Alps and beyond the borders of Slovenia.

Location

The Rogla-Pohorje tourist destination stretches across the mighty Pohorje, dominated by Rogla, past the wine-growing hills and into the soothing Dravinja Valley.

Hidden Vitanje, touristy Zreče, white Oplotnica and picturesque Slovenske Konjice are a magical corner with Pohorje energy, natural gems, venerable history - and the greatest treasure of all: friendly people.

FORESTWELL | DIGITALLY ENHANCED EDUCATION FOR FOREST, TOURISM & WELLNESS

1

Activities & Commercial Model

Wellbeing

Sustainability and Trees

You will become part of the forest life and meet many animals and plants that you will not find anywhere else.

Along the way, there will be several adrenaline-pumping and educational stops.

Tourist Destination Rogla - Pohorje destination of hidden treasures picturesque hiking and cycling trails, museums, wine cellars and much more are waiting to be explored.

And if you want to stay longer, peaceful hotels, farm tourism and a variety of wellness options will tempt you to immerse and relax.